Overview

Shimonoseki City University (SCU) is a municipal university located in a historically famous place, Shimonoseki in Yamaguchi Prefecture. It was established in 1956 as Shimonoseki Commercial Junior College for the working youths who eagerly wanted to get higher education. At first, SCU had only one department (the Faculty of Economics), however, the departments have been added as follows:

- 1983 Department of International Commerce
- 1990 Shimonoseki Institute for Research of Industry and Culture
- 2000 Graduate School (Master's courses)
- 2011 Department of Public Management

SCU has three departments in the Faculty of Economics as well as the Graduate School of Economics. Currently SCU aims to expand into a major University, and another two Faculties will be added as follows:

- 2024 The Faculty of Data Science
- 2025 The Faculty of Nursing

The number of students

The number of students 1,986 (include 25 graduate school students, 7 exchange students, and international students 42). As of May 1st

Since the University's founding in the 1950's, our community has thrive through strong connections and collaboration with the outside world. Now we enter the new phase to vigorously develop the global connection with connecting other educational communities, institutions and organizations around world.
